The Museum of Modern Ice is a winter celebration in Millennium Park this February 1 – 29. The centerpiece will be a colossal, site-specific installation of boldly colored, abstract paintings in ice by Canadian artist Gordon Halloran. On weekends throughout the month-long festival, free public programs and family activities will be offered at the American Express Heated Tent, adjacent to the wall, and across the street in the Chicago Cultural Center Hot Spot. For more information about Museum of Modern Ice, visit www.millenniumpark.org.
